Dear Minister McKenna,

I do NOT support oil and gas exploration occurring within Sable Island National Park Reserve. This little island, with its population of the Sable Island Pony, is too important to the ecology of Nova Scotia and Canada to be touched by exploration even accidentally. It is unique in Canada and possibly the world in its construction and ongoing existence - a dune island so far offshore, populated by those ponies who have managed the unique feat of establishing a self-perpetuating herd on the island. We can't risk it.

Thank you,

Tim Fletcher
